WHO WE ARE?

ISPCC is a national charity dedicated to enhancing the lives of children and young people; they are at the heart of everything we do. We do this by providing a suite of relevant services, all under the Childline brand.

Our child-centred services, programmes and supports focus on strengthening resilience and developing coping competencies.

Our Purpose

ISPCC is for children. We are here to build a nation of resilient children.

Our Vision

That every child has the skills to cope with life's ups and downs.

Our Mission

That every child who wants to connect with us can, when and how they want to.

CHILDLINE LISTENING

What is the Shield Programme?

- Digital Programme developed by ISPCC in collaboration with DCU's Anti Bullying Centre and Webwise.
- Programme content developed in line with up-to-date research on how to prevent and respond effectively to all forms of Bullying (including Cyber / Online Bullying).
- Self Evaluation Toolkit, with links to educational/further reading.
- Content – videos/ posters/ lesson plans/ live content through online delivery medium.
- Follow up support, randomized reviews, and guidance from Community Engagement Lead

The Shield Statements

- 1-Stand Up – We acknowledge that bullying is an issue for all organisations and the wider community. N.B. Repetition no longer a requirement for bullying incidents.
- 2-Anti-Bullying Policy – Our organisation has an effective anti-bullying policy in place which is open for all to see and passed on to all concerned. This policy will need to be reviewed and updated regularly. Who was involved in this?
- 3-Report and Collect – Bullying incidences are recorded, analysed, and followed through consistently. What trends are you seeing? In line with recommendations from the Dept. of Education

The Shield Statements

- 4-It Takes a Village – Our whole community approach to bullying is reflected in our policy which is a culmination of ideas and thoughts from the whole community in which our organisation is based in. What can we learn from Restorative Practice?
- 5-Inclusion not Exclusion – Our organisation is inclusive, and our activities acknowledge diversity and individual difference among young people, staff, and the wider community. Giving each player regardless of their ability/skill a purpose/job.
- 6-No 'I' in Bully – Our evidence-based intervention strategies are actively implemented on an on-going basis and address the multiple aspects of need that exist in each bullying situation. How do we look after all those involved & also keep an eye on the off pitch behaviour?

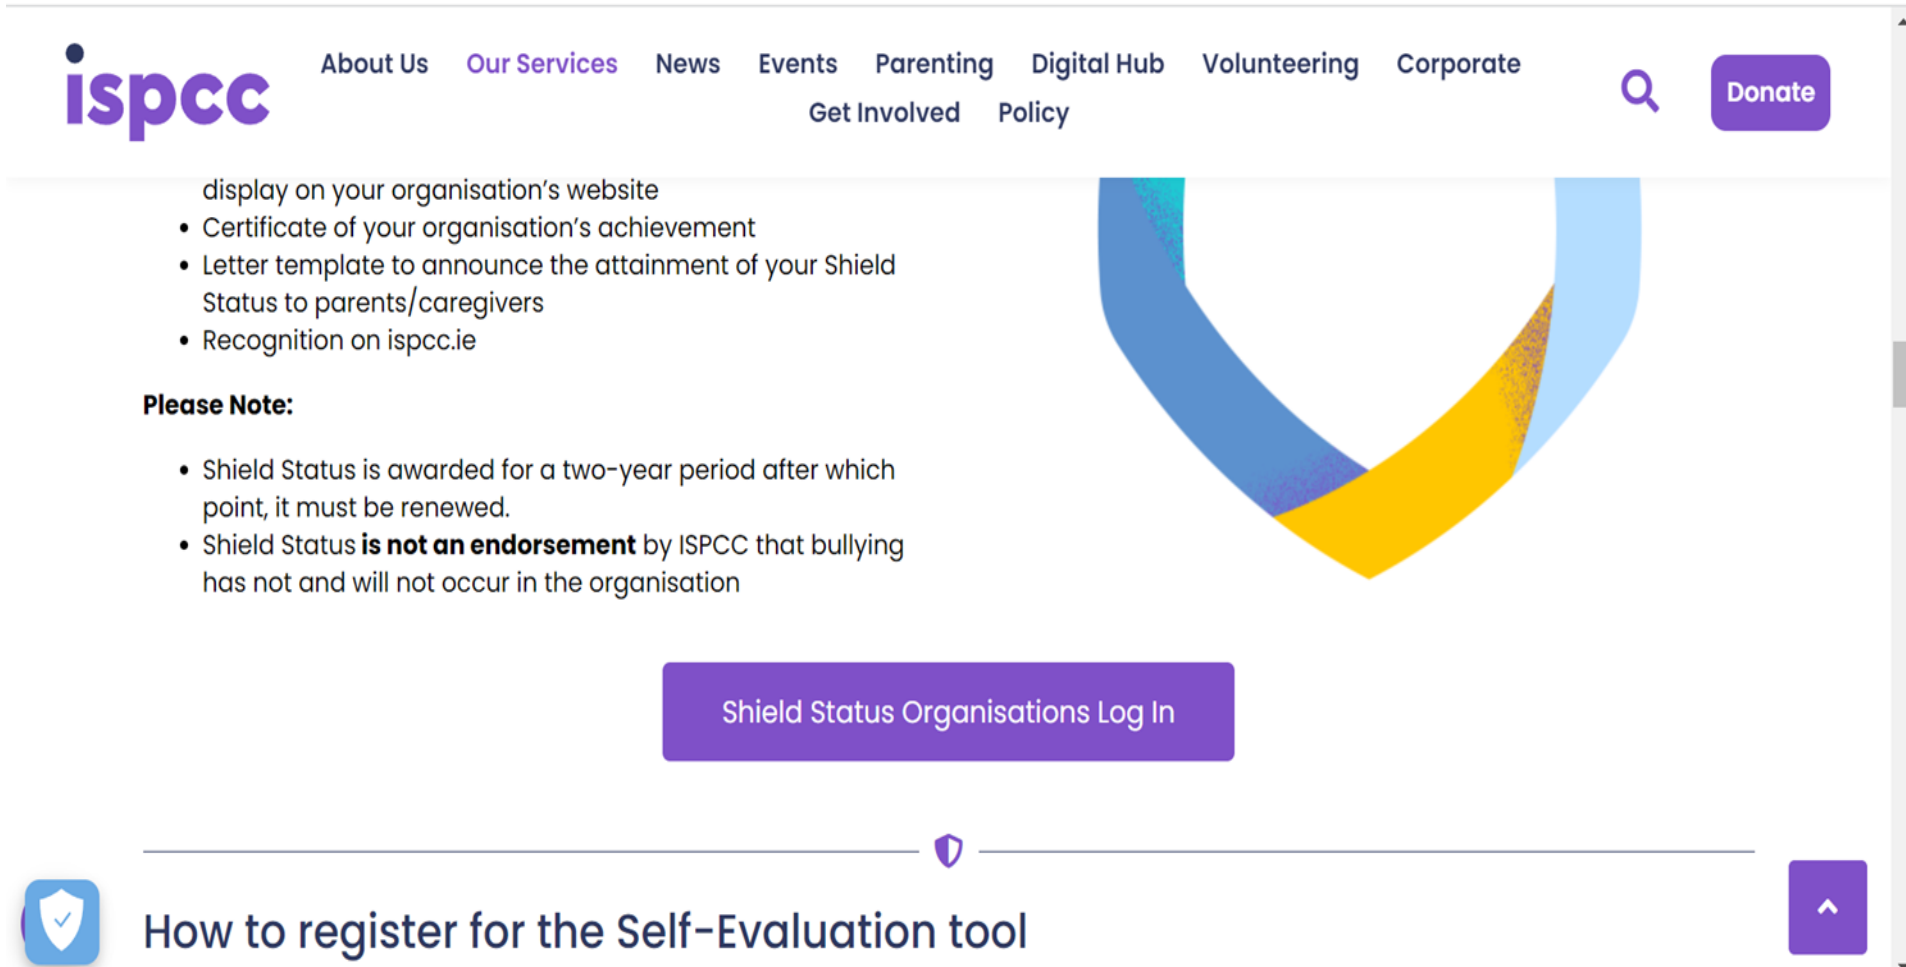

The Shield Statements

- 7-Training and Ongoing Upskilling - Our organisation is open to the uptake of new ideas, learning new skills and a change of behaviour to combat bullying. Our young people are regularly taught new ways of responding to bullying and staff receive regular training and updates of evidence-based approaches to tackling bullying. (WebWise, DCU Anti-Bullying Centre, BelongTo, INAR, AslAm, ITM)
- 8-Raise Up Resilience - Our organisation actively tackles bullying behaviour through awareness raising, tolerance and empathy building as well as improving general levels of resilience and self-esteem. Building up trusting relationships with the B.R.A.V.I.N.G model from Brene Brown!

The Shield Statements

- 9-Reporting Procedures – Our young people and staff can report bullying concerns, they feel listened to and supported and we help build confidence to come forward no matter how small or big the perceived issue. Are you a proud Telling Organisation? Can you implement the 3E's Fairness from RP?
- 10-Online Safety – Online safety and digital knowledge is imperative for young people growing up today. Cyberbullying is a contemporary problem facilitated in recent years by a rapid growth in information and communication technology. Our organisation is committed to protecting young people from both traditional forms of bullying and online or cyber bullying. Cyberbullying is a contemporary problem and adults do not have first-hand experience of being immersed in social media in their youth, therefore, the development of appropriate interventions requires a thorough understanding of the nature of cyberbullying from the perspective of young people. WebWise has courses for parents, staff/teachers and young people. There is a STAR program for young people with additional needs, and "Digital citizenship" reminding young people of their rights and responsibilities online!

Anti-Bullying Guidance and Advice

< What NOT to say to a worried child who is being bullied

While it's important to raise resilient children, it's also vital that we don't dismiss their worries as 'silly' or an 'over-reaction'.

What to do if your child is facing Social Exclusion

Research has shown that social exclusion can have a detrimental effect on young people, including the loss of self-esteem.

Bullying and the role of the 'Bystander' >

A bystander is someone who 'stands by' and watches something happen - like bullying - without doing anything to stop it.

Shield Status Schools and Clubs 2022 - 2024:

- Hopes-What are your strengths& positives?
- Fears-What does bullying mean to you in the Worst case scenario?

Reflection as staff

- Who will be the Point of contact for each club?
- Who is the Anti-bullying coordinator?
- Can we create a Bullying Prevention Coordinating Committee, a Community of Practice and who will sit on what, inviting parents/caregivers/external staff and players appropriately?

What does your current anti bullying program and aftercare look like?

- What are the agreed consequences re: bullying?
- Does everyone follow through on these consequences?
- What seems fair? Is time given to Engagement, Explanation, Expectation?(RP)
- Are your organisation's policies and procedures covering areas such as...

1. Prevention:

2. Support:

3. Oversight

4. Community:

5. Culture and Environment

6. Curriculum (Teaching and Learning)

7. Policy and Planning

8. Relationships and Partnerships

Bullying is a children's rights issue. Bullying interferes with the following rights of the child:

- The right to freedom of expression (Article 13)
- The right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion (Article 14)
- The right to freedom of association and freedom of peaceful assembly (Article 15)
- The right to privacy (Article 16)
- The right to be protected from all forms of abuse and neglect (Article 19)
- The right to enjoy the highest attainable standard of health (Article 24)
- The right to education (Article 28)
- The right to enjoy their own culture, religion or language (Article 30)

“They say if you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together.”

Suicide Prevention

Connecting for Life

Presentation Content and Trigger Warning

This presentation details information, content or discussion relating to suicide and/or self-harm, that may be emotive for some people.

- You could find it upsetting or disturbing
- You could overly identify with it - personally or professionally
- It might have a negative impact on you in other ways.

With this in mind, it is advised that you;

- Are mindful and aware of your own needs and self-care in this space
- Take a break, opt out or mute the conversation, at any point you feel you need to
- Talk after the meeting, with the host or moderator.

Visit www.yourmentalhealth.ie for information on how to mind your mental health, support others, or to find a support service in your area. You can also call the Your Mental Health Information Line on 1800 111 888, anytime day or night, for information on mental health services in your area.

Sensitive Language

Be mindful that many people here, will have been impacted by suicide in some way, either personally or professionally. Always use sensitive and non-stigmatising language when discussing suicide and self-harm. For example;

- Remain non-judgemental throughout and try not to make assumptions about others.
- Don't identify a person solely by their mental health difficulty and never use "a suicide" as a noun to describe a person.
- Use neutral and simple terms like;

"Died by suicide..." or "ended his/her own life..."	rather than	"Committed suicide..." (dying by suicide is not a criminal act)
"A death by suicide..."	rather than	"A successful / completed suicide..."
"An attempt on his/her life..."	rather than	"An unsuccessful suicide / suicide attempt..."
"Self-harm..."	rather than	"Deliberate self-harm..."

Visit www.hse.ie/eng/services/list/4/mental-health-services/nosp/resources/language-and-suicide for information on how to use sensitive and non-stigmatising language when engaging in a conversation, talking or writing about suicide.

Strategic Context: Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Training

- Suicide is complex and so are its solutions – suicide prevention training is one of the tools used to support objectives of the strategy and reduce suicide rates.
- When people are thinking about suicide, they can send out invitations for help – suicide prevention gatekeeper training is effective in improving participant’s knowledge, skills and confidence to intervene when someone is in suicidal distress.
- Challenge the stigma & myths around suicide.

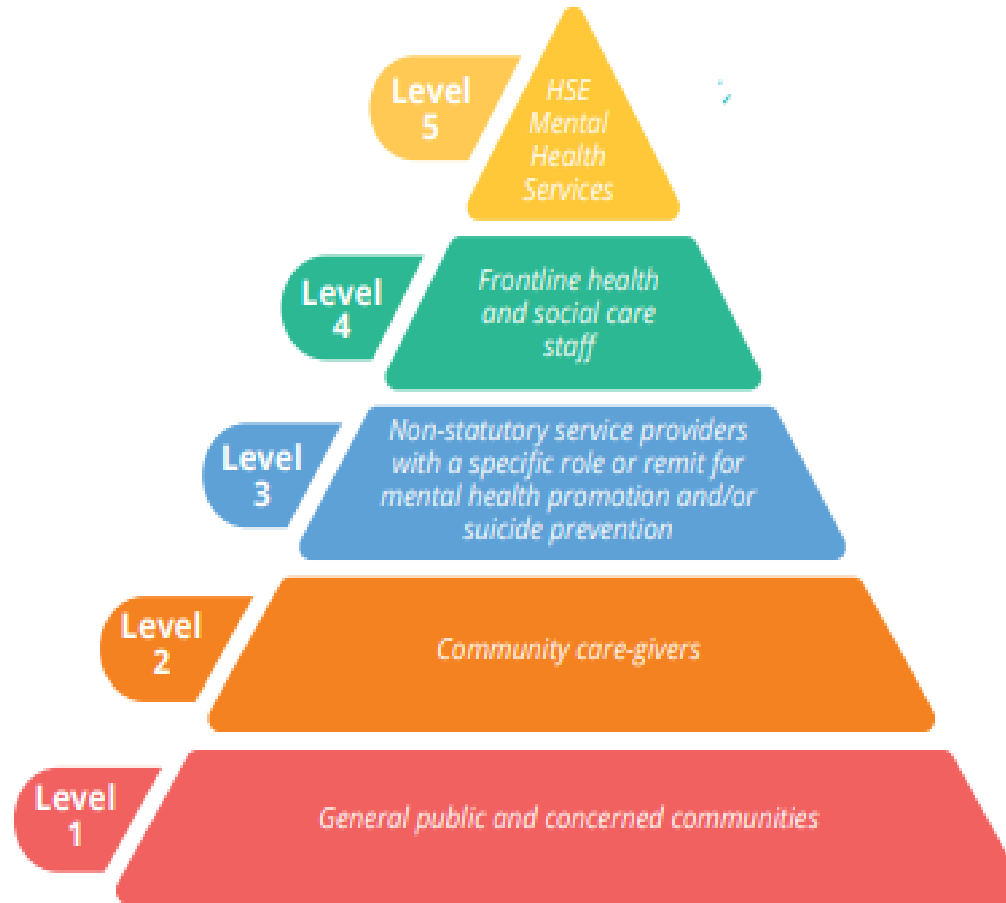

Suicide Prevention Gatekeeper Training - Why is it important

We all have a role to play in suicide prevention.

Designated Gatekeepers

Emergent Gatekeepers

Context for Development:

Build the capacity of emergent gatekeepers

- How do we build the capacity of a population of Emergent Gatekeepers?
- How do we present the topic of suicide in a way that honours its sensitivity and communicates its importance?
- How we build integrity and authenticity into the material that we develop?

The National Participation Framework

Lundy Model of Participation in Decision Making

This model provides a pathway for conceptualise Article 12

Participation with Purpose:

- Views are listened to
- Taken seriously and giving due weight
- Intention – their views will influence an outcome or initiate change

Including Children and Young People in Decision Making in Sport

-  Every day—every time you engage with a child or young person, for example, in a training or coaching session or activity one-on-one or in a group.
-  Club level- for example, within the structures, procedures, rules, plans, programs, uniforms or events or in changing the physical indoor or outdoor space.
-  National level- for example, strategy, policy, developing new programmes, new funding support, new guidance for your sport organisation.

What is Children and Young People's Participation in Decision-making?

- The right to a voice on decisions that affect them in everyday situations and strategic developments.
- Believing children and young people are capable of and have a right to agency.
- Understanding children and young people are not only the future of society – they are their own present.
- Knowing children and young people have unique perspectives that are as important and valuable as those of adults.
- Listening to children and young people is the key to understanding their present lives.

What Participation in Decision-making is not:

- ➔ Handing over complete power to children and young people
 - Instead it is giving due weight to their the views by acknowledging what they want and discussing the safest, most realistic and best decision(s) with them
- ➔ Believing that they are the only experts on their own lives
- ➔ Allowing them to do things that are unsafe or violate their other rights
 - Children and young people are entitled to have decisions made with their best interests as the primary consideration

The 9 Overarching Principles:

1. Transparent and Informative
2. Voluntary
3. Respectful
4. Relevant
5. Child Friendly
6. Inclusive (non discriminatory)
7. Supported by training
8. Safe and sensitive to risk
9. Accountable

Lundy Model

This model provides a pathway to help conceptualise Article 12 of the UNCRC. It focuses on four distinct, albeit interrelated, elements. The four elements have a rational chronological order.

The Lundy Model

- Space (Teal circle) Ensuring safe and inclusive environments for all voices.
- Voice (Orange circle) Empowering children and young people to share their opinions and ideas.
- Audience (Purple circle) Identifying who will listen to and act on children and young people's input.
- Influence (Red circle) Ensuring that youth input has real impact.

Checklists and Feedback Forms based on the Lundy Model

Planning Checklist

This checklist guides you on how to listen to children and young people and involve them in decision-making when you are developing policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation at national, local and organisational level. You should inform children and young people that they have the right to a voice in decision-making and that you will take their views seriously.

Before you start involving children and young people in decision-making, please review the enabling factors on page 24.

Planning Checklist

Evaluation Checklist

This checklist is a guide for the self-evaluation and external evaluation of policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation at national, local and organisational level.

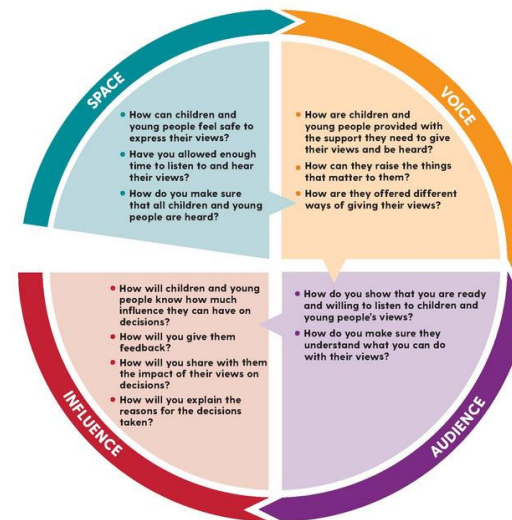

Evaluation Checklist

Everyday Spaces Checklist

This checklist is designed as a guide to help you ensure that children and young people have a voice in decision-making. It can be applied in many everyday situations including in classrooms, hospitals, childcare settings, child and youth services, youth and sports clubs, youth projects, arts and creative initiatives and other spaces.

Please do not use this checklist for developing policies, plans, services, programmes, governance, research and legislation – use the Planning Checklist on page 18.

Please make sure that the ways you involve children and young people in decision-making are age-appropriate and accessible for all, whether in person or online.
